

NEBOSH National General Certificate

Course Duration	14 days plus private study and background reading, but including the assessment and examination
Who will Benefit	Managers, supervisors and anyone else who has health and safety responsibilities. To assist individuals in carrying out their organisational duties and functions more effectively and to protect their organisation. No previous health and safety knowledge is required, but delegates must be able to write short reports
Areas covered by Training	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Health and safety foundations • Policy • Organising for health and safety • Promoting a positive health and safety culture • Risk assessment • Principles of control • Movement of people and vehicles - hazards and control • Manual and mechanical handling hazards and control • Work equipment hazards and control • Electrical hazards and control • Fire hazards and control • Chemical and biological health hazards and control • Physical and psychological health hazards and control • Construction activities - hazards and control • Incident investigation, recording and reporting • Monitoring, review and audit
Maximum Number of Delegates	12	This training is also run as a public course
Resources Required	Client to provide: (If In House) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Training room to accommodate all the delegates comfortably with 240V power supply. This is a purely theoretical training course which includes two, two hour written examination papers and a practical assessment Trainer to provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Training Equipment (course notes and presentation package)

To book, Phone 08456 122144 or email us today training@healthandsafetypeople.com